Great and Legitimate Removal Sale

Will make its bow to the public of Richmond and all surrounding sections of the State to-morrow (Saturday) morning, July 3d). Our entire stock, consisting of thousands upon thousands of dollars' worth of Clothing, Furnishings, Hats and Shoes, for Men, Boys and Children, must be sacrificed in every instance to less than the actual cost of production to lighten the burdens of moving.

The time is short and the matter urgent. Never before in the history of merchandising has the public of Richmond been afforded the opportunity of buying standard, high-class merchandise, such as we manufacture and retail exclusively through our own chain of six big stores, at such a sacrifice.

Absolutely not a single dollar's worth of questionable merchandise in our entire establishment, nor do we use the catch-penny, deceiving methods of advertising to trap the unwary. Straightforward, legitimate methods only are tolerated in the Burk establishments. Every article advertised is here as defined, and there is nothing exempted in this sale excepting Manhattan Shirts and Earl & Wilson and Arrow Brand Collars, on which we are obligated by contract not to break prices. Otherwise, everything is sacrificed, regardless of character or kind.

Bring this advertisement with you. Point out what you want. If not advertised, ask for it. No goods sent out on memorandum; no goods charged during this sale.

COURT CONVENES AT CHRISTIANSBURG

Case of Harry Hoffman Attracts Attention—Corner-Stone Laying Saturday.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHRISTIANSBURG, Va., July 1.—The July term of the Montgomery Circuit Court convened to-day, with Judge W. W. Moffett, of Salem, presiding. Owing to the busy season among the farmers only a small crowd attended. A special grand jury was impaneled and a number of indictments for felonies were found, and the court will begin trying them on Friday, as this term will be devoted to the trial of criminal cases exclusively. Most of the accused persons are out on bail. Only two persons are confined in jail, one an idiot and the other a German named Harry Hoffman, alias Harry Freeman, alias Charles Rieman, charged with grand larceny. He will be tried next Tuesday, and much interest is manifested in the outcome of the trial. He is a natural musician and can play any instrument. He claims he was under the influence of some opiate and knows nothing about the crime he is charged with committing. Many inquiries from all over the country have been received concerning him, and it is claimed that he is wanted in a number of places. Saturday promises to be one of the most important days in the history of the county, when a large concourse of people from the surrounding country will gather to witness the laying of the corner-stone of the new courthouse, which will be done by the local Masonic Lodge. Judge R. T. W. Duke, of Charlottesville, one of the most gifted orators in the State, will deliver the oration. Captain John R. Johnson, who dean of the local bar, will introduce Judge Duke and will give a brief sketch of the history of the county and court system. A copy of the speeches of Judge Duke and Captain Johnson will be deposited in the corner-stone, as well as a list of the officers of the county, copies of the Montgomery Messenger, Times-Dispatch, Blacksburg News, Roanoke Times and Evening World.

The political situation in Montgomery county was never more quiet and no interest whatever is being manifested in the coming Democratic primary. Had Hon. Henry C. Stuart remained in the race he would have carried the county by a large majority, but since his withdrawal it is believed that Judge Mann will probably get a small majority. The majority will be small, because a very small vote will be cast, no one putting the total at over 500, and it may be even smaller. Judge Mann W. Williams will carry the county almost solidly for Attorney-General. He got a handsome majority over Major Anderson four years ago, and he is much stronger now. It is believed that J. Thompson Brown will win in this county for Commissioner of Agriculture, and that Mr. Elliston will lead for Lieutenant-Governor. The Republicans held a mass-meeting here to-day and elected fifteen delegates and fifteen alternates to the Newport News convention, which convenes on July 8. Since Hon. A. P. Gillespie, of Tazewell, has declined to allow his name to be used as a candidate for Governor, it is hoped that Hop. R. H. Angell, of Roanoke, can be prevailed upon to run, in which event Montgomery will give him a solid delegation.

Charles A. Johnson will be nominated by the Democrats for the House of Delegates as no one else aspires to the nomination. The Republicans are looking around for a strong candidate, but have united on no one as yet.

"Booze Jug" Passes.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MONTEREY, Va., July 1.—The passing of the "booze jug" from the passenger list of the Staunton Military mail hack is an eventful one in many minds, and went into effect July 1 under a ruling of the Post-Office Department. The effect that it will have on the drink habit in rural districts is awaited with interest. Some predict that the situation will demand, or the opportunity justify, the placing of the opportunity "booze" wagon on the line.

MEDALS AWARDED TO YOUNG WRITERS

Authors of Best Short Story, Essay and Poem Contributed to Varsity Magazine.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., July 1.—Dr. Charles W. Kent, professor of English literature in the University of Virginia, announced to-day that the judges had finally reached a decision in regard to the awarding of the medals offered by the University of Virginia Magazine, the monthly published under the auspices of the Washington and Jefferson Literary Societies of that institution. The awards are customarily announced during the commencement, but owing to delay in procuring judges it was found impossible to make known the result until to-day.

Three medals are awarded each session by the magazine—one for the best short story, one for the best essay and one for the best poem contributed to the publication during the year.

H. Emory Widener, of Abingdon, a student in the law department, won the short story medal, valued at $50, with his story, "The Balance." Second and third places went to Stanley M. Cleveland, of Charlottesville, with "La Petite Fille du Lac" and "A La Croix de Morieux." Others receiving honorable mention were "The Eyes of Thais" and "Vao Vicia" by Albert G. A. Balz, of Charlottesville, and "The Dividing Line" by John Cary Jamison, of Roanoke, a student in the law school. Albert G. A. Balz, of Charlottesville, was awarded the medal for the best essay, with the essay entitled "Sybil," and received second place with "Romanism in English Music and Literature." Mr. Balz received his master of arts degree at the June commencement. Paul Micou, of the Theological Seminary, won third place with his essay, "The Missionary Preaching of the Early Church." The prize for the best piece of original verse was awarded to the author of the poem entitled "The Passing of the Post," John J. Ellington, of Atlanta, Texas. Second place was given the author of "The Poet," Weldon A. Myers, of Broadway, a master of arts of the university, and third place to Stanley M. Cleveland, of O. Meara Itala." Honorable mention was accorded to the following: "Egea Allan Poe" and "The Easter Lily," both by Mr. Ellington.

Under Assumed Name.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROANOKE, Va., July 1.—It has developed that the Canadian barber, who died here yesterday, was not under an assumed name. A telegram received from his brother-in-law in Montreal to-day says: "Bury Herbert Williams Terry, known as Harry Thompson, minor, who struck Thompson with the rock and caused his death, claims that he was advancing on him, and he thought he had a weapon in his hand."
